Several Liability Clause

The liability of an insurer under this contract is several and not joint with other insurers party to this contract. An insurer is liable only for the proportion of liability it has underwritten. An insurer is not jointly liable for the proportion of liability underwritten by any other insurer. Nor is an insurer otherwise responsible for any liability of any other insurer that underwrites this contract. The proportion of liability under this contract underwritten by an insurer (or, in the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together) is shown in this contract. In the case of a Lloyd's syndicate, each member of the syndicate (rather than the syndicate itself) is an insurer. Each member has underwritten a proportion of the total shown for the syndicate (that total itself being the total of the proportions underwritten by all the members of the syndicate taken together). The liability of each member of the syndicate is several and not joint with other members. A member is liable only for that member's proportion. A member is not jointly liable for any other member's proportion. Nor is any member otherwise responsible for any liability of any other insurer that underwrites this contract. The business address of each member is Lloyd's, One Lime Street, London EC3M 7HA. The identity of each member of a Lloyd's syndicate and their respective proportion can be obtained by writing to Market Services, Lloyd's, at the above address. Although reference is made at various points in this clause to "this contract" in the singular, where the circumstances so require this must be read as a reference to contracts in the plural.

Customer service information

This Introduction, the Customer service information, the General definitions, General conditions, General exclusions, Sections, Section extensions, the schedule and any endorsements all form part of this insurance policy.

IMPORTANT REMINDER

It is important that:

- You check that the information you have given us is accurate and up to date – See the Customer service information section for more details.
- You read the policy and understand its contents, if you do not understand any aspect please contact your insurance advisor.
- You comply with your duties under each section and under the insurance as a whole.
- You check that the sections you have requested are included in the schedule.

This policy must be kept in a safe place. You will need to refer to it if you have to make a claim.

This section contains important information about how we will deal with claims under this policy and the information you have given us.

Information you have given us

In deciding to accept this policy and in setting the terms and premium, we have relied on the information you, or your appointed agent acting on your behalf, have given us. You must take care when answering any questions, we ask by ensuring that all information provided is accurate and complete.

If we establish that you deliberately or recklessly provided us with false or misleading information, we will treat your policy as if it never existed and decline all claims. We are entitled to keep any premium already paid by you in this situation.

If we establish that you provided us with false, incomplete, or misleading information, but this was neither deliberate nor reckless, it can adversely affect your policy and any claim.

For example:

- Where we could have accepted the risk and offered you an insurance policy, but we would have charged a higher premium, we will only pay a percentage of any claim that you make under the policy. We would do this by considering the premium we charged as a percentage of the higher premium we would have charged and then paying you the equivalent percentage of any claim.

So, as an example: if the premium we actually charged was £250 (two hundred and fifty pounds) and the higher premium we would have charged was £1,000 (one thousand pounds), then the premium we actually charged represents twenty five percent of the higher premium we would have charged, and we will only pay 25% (twenty five percent) of any claim.
- We will treat this policy as if it had never existed and refuse to pay all claims and return the premium. We will only do this if the false, incomplete, or misleading information means that we provided you with insurance cover when we would not otherwise have offered it at all had the risk been fairly presented.
- If we would have written the risk on different terms had it been fairly presented, we will amend the policy to include these terms. We will apply these amended terms as if they were already in place before a claim is made.
- We can cancel your policy in accordance with its cancellation provisions.

We will write to you if we:

- intend to treat your policy as if it never existed; or
- amend the terms of your policy; or
- reduce your claim in accordance with the above.

If you become aware that information you have given us is inaccurate or incomplete, you must inform us without delay.

In addition to these general conditions which apply to all sections there are additional conditions which are applicable to the specific sections of this insurance which will appear in this document or in your Insurance Document:

1. Fair presentation of the risk

Before this insurance contract is entered into, you must make a fair presentation of the risk to us, in accordance with Section 3 of the Insurance Act 2015. In summary, you must:

- 1.1. Disclose to us every material circumstance which you know or ought to know. Failing that, you must give to us sufficient information to put a prudent Insurer on notice that it needs to make further enquiries in order to reveal material circumstances. A matter is material if it would influence the judgement of a prudent Insurer as to whether to accept the risk, or the terms of the insurance (including premium); and
- 1.2. make the disclosure in clause (1) above in a reasonably clear and accessible way; and
- 1.3. ensure that every material representation of fact is substantially correct, and that every material representation of expectation or belief is made in good faith.

For the purposes of clause (1) above, you are expected to know the following:

- 1.4. If you are an individual, what is known to the individual and anybody who is responsible for arranging your insurance.
- 1.5. If you are not an individual, what is known to anybody who is part of your senior management; or anybody who is responsible for arranging your insurance.
- 1.6. Whether you are an individual or not, what should reasonably have been revealed by a reasonable search of information available to you. The information may be held within your organisation, or by any third party (including but not limited to the agent, subsidiaries, affiliates or any other person who will be covered under the insurance). If you are insuring subsidiaries, affiliates or other parties, we expect that you will have included them in your enquiries, and that you will inform us if you have not done so. The reasonable search may be conducted by making enquiries or by any other means.

If you breach your duty of fair presentation before entering into this insurance contract, the remedies available to us are explained below.

- 1.7. If the breach is deliberate or reckless:
 - 1.7.1. We may avoid the contract and refuse to pay a claim; and
 - 1.7.2. we do not need to return any of the premiums paid.
- 1.8. If the breach is not deliberate or reckless, the remedy depends on what we would have done if you had complied with the duty of fair presentation:
 - 1.8.1. If we would not have entered into the contract at all, we may avoid the contract, refuse all claims or losses and return any premiums paid.
 - 1.8.2. If we would have entered into the contract but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the contract will be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms from the outset.
 - 1.8.3. If we would have entered into the contract but charged a higher premium, we may reduce the amount we pay for a claim by a proportional amount (and, if applicable, the amount already paid for previous claims). In these circumstances we will pay X% of the amount we would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/higher premium}) \times 100$.

If you breach your duty of fair presentation before entering into a variation to this insurance contract, the remedies available to us are explained below.

- 1.9. If the breach is deliberate or reckless:
 - 1.9.1. We may terminate the contract from the date the variation was concluded; and
 - 1.9.2. We do not need to return any of the premiums paid.
- 1.10. If the breach is not deliberate or reckless, the remedy depends on what we would have done if you had complied with the duty of fair presentation.
 - 1.10.1. If we would not have agreed to the variation at all, we may treat the contract as if the variation was never made and return any extra premium paid for that variation.
 - 1.10.2. If we would have agreed to the variation but on different terms (other than terms relating to the premium), the variation will be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms.
 - 1.10.3. If we would have increased the premium by more than we did (or at all), we may reduce the amount we pay for a claim arising after the date of the variation by a proportional amount. In this circumstance we will pay X% of the amount we would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/higher premium}) \times 100$.
 - 1.10.4. If we would not have reduced the premium as much as we did (or at all), we may reduce the amount we pay for a claim arising after the date of the variation by a proportional amount. In this circumstance we will pay X% of the amount we would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/higher premium}) \times 100$.

2. Maximum sums payable

At any time at our sole discretion we can pay to you the maximum sum payable under this policy or any lesser sums for which any claim or claims can be settled. If we do this, we will not be under any further liability except for the payment of costs and expenses of litigation incurred prior to such payment, this is that in the event of a claim such costs and expenses will not exceed an amount being in the same proportion as our payment to you bears to the total payment made by you or on your behalf in settlement of the claim or claims.

3. Conditions precedent

There are conditions contained within the policy that are conditions precedent to our liability. If a condition precedent applies only to a particular section it will be shown under that section.

If you do not comply with any part of a condition precedent, we will not pay for any claim, except that where the condition precedent concerned:

- 3.1. Operates only in connection with particular premises or locations, we will pay for claims arising out of an event occurring at other premises or locations which are not specified in the condition.
- 3.2. Operates only at particular times, we will pay for any claim where you show on the balance of probabilities that its non-compliance with the condition precedent did not cause or contribute to the injury, loss, damage or liability which occurred.
- 3.3. Would, if complied with, tend to reduce particular types of injury, loss, damage or liability, we will pay for any claim where you show on the balance of probabilities that non-compliance with the condition precedent did not cause or contribute to the injury, loss, damage or liability which occurred.

4. Care and prevention

It is a condition of this insurance that you take all care to prevent accidents and to maintain and keep in proper repair your premises, property, contractors plant and equipment, plant, machinery and everything used in the business. You must make good or remedy any defect or danger which becomes apparent, and take such additional precautions as the circumstances could require. You must also take all care to act in accordance with all statutory obligations and regulations and to employ only competent employees. If you do not do so we will reject or be unable to deal with your claim or be unable to pay your claim in full.

You will at your own expense:

- 4.1. Take all reasonable precautions to prevent or reduce damage; and
- 4.2. cease any activity which could give rise to liability under this policy; and
- 4.3. maintain all buildings, furnishings, ways, works machinery, caravans and vehicles in good condition; and
- 4.4. exercise care in the selection and supervision of employees; and
- 4.5. remedy any defect or danger as soon as possible after discovery and in the meantime take such additional precautions as the circumstances could require; and

- 6.5. must not accept the decision of the adjudicator as finally determining the dispute without our prior consent in writing; and
